Choral Group To Sing In Pamplin

The Crusaders for Christ Choir of Beaver Dam Baptist Church of Troy, Virginia will present the Sunday morning worship service at Elon Baptist Church in Pamplin on February 6 at eleven in the morning.

The Crusaders for Christ choral group is composed of Christians who want to speak out and sing out for Christ. The group was the result of a week-long series of meetings held in August 1970. The Crusaders take the Good News in testimony and song to Churches and other groups.

Although most of the group are members of the Beaver Dam Baptist Church, some of the Crusaders are members of other churches but all are bound by a burden for the lost and a desire to edify the "Born Again Believers." Prayer and Bible study are important parts of the choir's training and preparation of each member as they present the challenge to live for Christ each day.

The choir is composed of twenty-two voices; accompanied by Carl Britts playing the trumpet and Mrs. Eleanor Britts on the piano. The choir is under the direction of Mrs. Roberta Harlowe.

Raiderettes Rip E. C. Glass Girls 34-25

The Appomattox Raiderettes beat the E. C. Glass Hilltoppettes last Tuesday night 34-25 in a non-conference girls' basketball game played at Appomattox. It was the first loss of the season for the Glass girls as the Raiderettes led all the way. The win gave Appomattox a 8-2 record overall and are 7-2 in the district. It was the second game in a row that the Raiderettes had been forced to be unbeaten to snap winning streaks. Rustburg had been the victim the Friday night before in a game that Appomattox won in overtime.

The Raiderettes got off to a 10-3 lead at the end of the first quarter and they fought on even terms in the second quarter and the Raiderettes had a 20-12 lead at the half. It went to 29-18 after three quarters and the Raiderettes coasted on to the victory.

Miss Book led the Appomattox girls with 10 points. She was followed by Jane Hix with nine points, the big fourth quarter effort. It was tied at 63-63 and the Altavista went to a 69-63 lead,but then it was tied again at 75-75, 77-77, 79-79, and 85-85 for the last time.

Both teams showed great shooting from the inside and outside as the Raider hit 38 of 68 shots for 56% and the Colonels hit 37 of 69 for 54%. Altavista hit on 13 of 18 free throws and the Raiders connected on 12 of 22 from the free throw line. The Raiders held a 33-32 advantage in rebounds as Leon Robinson had 12 and Bobby Layne 10 to lead the Raiders in that department and Appomattox had 13 turnovers to 15 for the Colonels. The two teams both shot great under pressure and did not mind putting the ball up.

Ricky Garrett led all scorers as he ripped the nets for 31 points for the Raiders. He hit on 13 of 19 shots from the floor and five of eight from the free throw line. He was followed by Leon Robinson with 16 points coming of eight of 11 from floor. Bobby Layne was next with 13 and David Johnson came off the bench to hit for 12. Sammy Waddell had nine, six in the second half on clutch shots that were had to be shots.

Jerome Pannell led the Colonels with 29 points coming on 13 field goals and three for three on the foul line. He was followed by Roney Tanks with 51. Grady Peavey with 18, Mike Cook

Kay Paulette makes free shot during 2nd quarter of Raiderettes' game against Altavista Friday night with the local team victors in a 41-16 game well played by the Raiderettes. Raiderettes are now 8-2 in the district and 9-2 overall.

Leon Robinson jumps and Sammy Waddell and Bobby Layne are ready for the ball (above) during a tense game Friday night as Raiders of ACHS beat Altavista Colonels 88-87 on the ACHS courts. The game was tied 15 times; lead changed 17 times as victorious Raiders caused Colonels their first district loss. Raiders are now 8-2 in the district and 12-2 overall.

Raiderettes Beat Altavista 41-16

The Appomattox Raiderettes took control at the start and never trailed as they beat the Altavista girls 41-16 in a girls Seminole District basketball game last Friday night at Appomattox. Appomattox is now 9-2 overall and 8-2 in the district.

The Raiderettes had a 9-2 lead at the end of the first quarter and upped it to 19-8 at the half. In the third quarter the Raiderettes outscored Altavista 11-4 for a 30-12 leadand coasted on to the win.

Appomattox hit on 17 of 47 shots from the floor for a 36% shooting percentage and Altavista six of 33 for 18%. Appomattox also controlled the boards 34 to 17 in rebounds.

Mary McCraw led Appomattox with 9 points. Pat Ferguson had nine and Pat Book and Kay Paulette each had six. The Raiderettes defense did not allow Altavista a field goal in the first quarter and only one shot at the basket.

Appomattox– 9 10 11 11–41
Altavista – 2 6 4 4 – 16

Appo scoring: McCraw 17, Ferguson 9, Paulette 6, Hix 3,Book 6.

with 11 and Ike Monroe with eight.

Garrett scored 21 of his 31 points in the second half as he hit time and time again when points were needed. He sat out most of the second quarter as he had three personal fouls on him. His 31 points were a high for an Appomattox player this year.

The game was a sellout as there were everywhere in the gym that you could put them. In the last three minutes most everyone was standing as the game continued to build to the closing seconds.

NOTICE

Residents Town of Appomattox

Section 9-3 of the Town Code requires that persons living in the Town of Appomattox and having garbage or waste must use a metal container with a tight fitting lid. This Container may not exceed thirty (30) gallon capacity.

Town residents are urged to inspect their containers to assure that the cans do not have holes and have tight fitting lids. Cans with rusted bottoms and open tops encourage rats, insects, and other varmints by providing a source of food and shelter.

The Town Council urges each family to co-operate in the rat campaign by using good sanitation and distributing rat bait where needed.
